“And hold firmly to the rope of Allah all together and do not become divided.”

– The Holy Qur'an (3:103)

UNDERSTANDING THE ORGANIZATION OF ISLAMIC COOPERATION

The Organization of Islamic Cooperation (OIC) is the second largest intergovernmental organization after the United Nations, representing the collective voice of the Muslim world.

HISTORY & ESTABLISHMENT

The OIC was established on 25 September 1969 following the historic Al-Quds (Jerusalem) Summit held in Rabat, Morocco, in response to the burning of Al-Aqsa Mosque and rising concerns over the challenges faced by Muslim nations.

Born from Solidarity

Created to promote unity, safeguard Islamic identity, and support the just causes of the Ummah.

Evolving Mandate

From political solidarity to comprehensive cooperation in economic, social, cultural, scientific and humanitarian fields.

Shared Vision

To be the collective voice, conscience and action body of the Muslim world.

BACKGROUND TO THE AGENDA: US-IRAN CONFLICT & UNITY IN THE MUSLIM WORLD

“Differences in opinion are natural, but division in the Ummah serves only the interests of those who wish to weaken it.”
— OIC Charter, Preamble

HISTORY OF US-IRAN TENSIONS

- 1979 Iranian Revolution: Overthrow of the Shah, establishment of the Islamic Republic; US-Iran diplomatic relations severed.
- 1980–88 Iran–Iraq War: US indirectly supports Iraq; deepening mistrust of Western powers in Iran.
- 1990s Sanctions Era: US imposes sanctions over Iran's nuclear program and support for regional groups.
- 2003 US Invasion of Iraq: Major geopolitical shift in the region; Iran's influence expands.
- 2015 JCPOA (Nuclear Deal): Iran agrees to limits on nuclear program in exchange for sanctions relief.
- 2018 US Withdrawal: US exits JCPOA and reimposes “maximum pressure” sanctions on Iran.
- 2020 Assassination of Qasem Soleimani: US drone strike in Iraq escalates tensions across the region.
- 2021–24 Indirect Escalations: Attacks on tankers, bases, and proxies across Syria, Iraq, Yemen, and the Gulf.
- 2025–26 Renewed Crisis: Continued sanctions, proxy conflicts, and nuclear deadlock heighten polarization in the Muslim world.

IMPACT ON UNITY IN THE MUSLIM WORLD

Sectarian Polarization

Shia–Sunni divides are inflamed, fueling distrust and proxy conflicts.

Geopolitical Alignments

Muslim countries are divided into competing camps with external alliances.

Proxy Conflicts

Wars in Yemen, Syria, Iraq, and Lebanon become arenas of indirect confrontation.

Undermined Cooperation

Focus shifts from collective progress to managing rivalries and security threats.

Narrative Warfare

Media and political rhetoric deepen mistrust and spread hostile perceptions.

The OIC's founding vision of unity, justice, and solidarity is constantly challenged by external interference and internal divisions.

The conflict's ripple effects are felt across political, sectarian, economic, and security dimensions, threatening regional stability.

CONSEQUENCES OF THE US-IRAN CONFLICT

HUMANITARIAN IMPACT

- Prolonged wars and proxy conflicts cause civilian suffering.
- Mass displacement and refugee crises across the region.
- Strain on healthcare, education, and basic services.

POLITICAL IMPACT

- Erosion of trust among Muslim nations.
- Weakening of collective decision-making in the OIC.
- External powers exploit divisions for strategic gain.

ECONOMIC IMPACT

- Sanctions disrupt trade, investment, and energy markets.
- Rising inflation, unemployment, and poverty in affected states.
- Diversion of resources from development to defense and security.

AT THE HEART OF THE AGENDA

The US-Iran conflict is not just a bilateral dispute — it is a challenge to the unity, dignity, and future of the entire Muslim Ummah.

Promote Understanding

Prevent Escalation

Uphold Unity

The OIC must lead with wisdom, dialogue, and solidarity to transform crisis into cooperation.

“And hold firmly to the rope of Allah all together and do not become divided.”
— The Holy Qur'an (3:103)
